

Declaration of awareness of the author guidelines and licensing policy of Revista Principia

We, the authors of the manuscript submitted to Revista Principia, a peer-reviewed open-access scientific journal managed by the Instituto Federal da Paraíba (IFPB), Brazil, hereby declare that:

1. About the submitted manuscript:

- It is an original work, does not constitute plagiarism or self-plagiarism, and does not infringe the copyrights, intellectual property, or confidentiality of third parties;
- It has not been published in full, nor is it under consideration for publication in another journal or conference proceedings;
- If derived from previously disseminated content (e.g., thesis, dissertation, monograph, book chapter), it contains at least 30% original content, including substantial changes to the title, abstract, discussion, or conclusions. This derivation was duly declared in the Cover Letter, and the original work was properly cited within the manuscript.

2. We fully agree with the Author Guidelines and Editorial Policies of Revista Principia and understand that any noncompliance may result in the rejection of the manuscript at any stage of the editorial process.

3. Copyright and licensing:

- Authors retain copyright over their manuscript;
- We authorize its publication under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC-BY 4.0) license, which allows use, reproduction, distribution, adaptation, and reuse for any lawful purpose, including commercial use, provided that proper credit is given to the authors and Revista Principia.

4. Authorship and responsibility and authorship:

- All authors contributed meaningfully to the manuscript and:
  - Have approved the final version submitted;
  - Agree to its submission to Revista Principia;
  - Assume public responsibility for the accuracy, integrity, and originality of its contents.

5. Ethical considerations:

- For studies involving human or animal subjects, the manuscript complies with ethical standards established by Resolution nº 466/2012 of the Brazilian National Health Council and other applicable national or international guidelines;
- Where required, approval from a Research Ethics Committee has been obtained, and the ethics statement has been attached at the time of submission.

6. Conflict of interest:

- We declare no financial, institutional, or personal conflicts of interest related to the content of this manuscript. Any relevant conflicts have been disclosed upon submission.

This statement is effective from the date of signing and is irrevocable and binding on the signatories and their successors. In the event of non-acceptance of the manuscript for publication, this declaration shall become null and void.
